

REALLY?

The Radical Call & Reluctant Enlistment of Moses

REFLECT | Week 2 | Exodus 3–4

1. Moses went from living in a lavish palace to herding sheep. What do you think God was teaching Moses? Have you ever been through a humbling and refining season of preparation?
2. Identify the specific questions Moses asked God in 3:11; 3:13, & 4:1. How do these questions still show up in modern life? Do you engage with or hide from questions like these? Where do you find answers?
3. What stands out to you about the way God responds to Moses' questions?
4. Based on verses 4:10 & 4:13, what was Moses really doing with his questions? Do you do the same?
5. What do you think about God's response (4:14) to Moses? What does this trigger in you?
6. What motivates your worship of God? How do you express your love and appreciation to God?

RESPOND | Sit with the following questions and journal a response to share with others.

Where have I made excuses to avoid God's promptings in my life?

How will I step beyond my excuses to trust God?
